Upcoming Events in Santa Barbara

For the GLBT Community

Join your friends and community at these exciting upcoming events and help support the NEW Santa Barbara Pride & Awareness Festival! With your support, our 2002 event promises to be better than the first!

Join us on Saturday, April 6, at Borders on State Street for Gay Santa Barbara Appreciation Day. Opening reception from 1-3 p.m. Author discussion and book signing begins at 2 p.m. Entertainment from 4-6 p.m. with Borders most popular flamenco guitarist, Robby Longley whose unique Spanish style "guitar noir" is always a crowd pleaser. There will be silent auction and raffle prizes will be donated from some of your favorite businesses.

About our guest author:

Elizabeth Sims is a book person through and through. A 10-year veteran of bookselling, she has also worked as a reporter and photographer. Her short fiction and poetry have appeared in Moving Out and The Smudge. Her book reviews have appeared in the Detroit Free Press. A longtime resident of the Detroit area, she now resides in Northern California. She will be signing her newest book Holy Hell.

Reception and Y'ALL Performance at Center Stage Theater - presented by the Contemporary Arts Forum (CAF)

Join us Friday, April 26, at the Center Stage Theater. The Gay Santa Barbara reception begins on the patio at 7 p.m. Performance begins at 7:30 p.m. This is Y'ALL's first visit to CAF. The duo's harmonies have been compared to the Everly Brothers, their style to A Prairie Home Companion and their humor to the Smothers Brothers. For more information visit www.outinsb.com.

Santa Barbara's Pride & Awareness Festival 2002

Join us once again in historic de la Guerra Plaza in downtown Santa Barbara for this year's Pride & Awareness Festival. This year's event promises to be a success with more music, dancing, shopping, and food.

Pay the "Rent" Party

Dust off your top hat and tails and enjoy an elegant evening at the historic Arlington Theater in Santa Barbara for the now famous production of Rent. After the show, join the cast of Rent and our Pride Committee for a real "Rent Party" and help pay the rent for the Santa Barbara Pride & Awareness Festival at de la Guerra Plaza on October 12, 2002.

This one-of-a-kind party is being hosted by Cafe Buenos Aires located at 1316 State Street. Their unique atmosphere and mouth watering menu is sure to make for a wonderful evening. Evening attire is strongly encouraged. Please, no shorts, jeans, t-shirts, or sandals.

Visit www.outinsb.com for continuous updates on this event.

About the Gay Santa Barbara (GSB) Foundation

Our Mission is to foster gay acceptance by transcending outdated religious, political and social mores with our active and visible public presence, the promotion of diversity training and education via local, regional and international gay cultural exchange and the encouragement of gay-friendly business and social practices.

The GSB Foundation, Inc. is a non-profit, California Corporation and is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code. We are currently an organization in forming and awaiting our determination for federal tax-exempt status.
